Policy Statement and a Statement about Commitment

- Coolum Beach Christian College is committed to taking all reasonable steps to promote the safety and wellbeing of students enrolled at the school and their protection from foreseeable harm. ¹ In practice, Coolum Beach Christian College is committed to acting in accordance with the Working with Children Check Act 2000 to promote the safety and wellbeing of students means that it will implement the measures outlined below in points 1 - 8.

1. Code of Conduct

At Coolum Beach Christian College, we expect our employees to conduct themselves as follows:

School employees are expected to always behave in ways that promote the safety, welfare and well-being of our students. Employees must actively seek to prevent harm to students, and to support those who have been harmed.

Specific responsibilities include:

- Employees should avoid situations where they are alone in an enclosed space with a student.
- When physical contact with a student is a necessary part of the teaching/learning experience, employees must exercise caution to ensure that the contact is appropriate and acceptable. Employees must always advise the student of what they intend doing and seek their consent.
- Employees must not develop a relationship with any student that is, or that can be interpreted as having a personal rather than a professional interest in a student.
- Employees must not have a romantic or sexual relationship with a student.

This commitment is evidence of Coolum Beach Christian College's fulfilment of the requirements.

Recruitment, Selection, Training and Management Procedures

Coolum Beach Christian College is committed to recruiting, selecting, training and managing employees in such a way that limits risks to students. In particular, Coolum Beach Christian College will:

- Ensure that its recruitment and selection procedures act to reduce the risk of harm to children from employees via:
 - Accurate position descriptions, including whether the successful applicant must be a teacher registered with the Queensland College of Teachers (who has been subject to relevant police and other safety checks), whether a Blue Card is necessary for the successful applicant, the responsibilities and supervision associated with the position, the nature and environment of the service provided to students, and the experience and qualifications required by the successful applicant.
 - Advertising the position with a clear statement about the school's commitment to safe and supportive work practices and identifying that candidates will be subject to a teacher registration check or Blue Card screening, a police check, referee checks, identification verification and the requirement to disclose any information relevant to the candidates' eligibility to engage in activities including children.
 - A selection process that includes assessing the application via an interview process and referee and other checks (as identified above) based on the accurate position description.
 - A probationary period of employment, which allows the school to further assess the suitability of the new employee and to act as a check on the selection process.

- Ensure that its training and management procedures act to reduce the risk of harm to students from employees via:
 - Management processes that are consistent, fair and supportive.
 - Performance management processes to help employees to improve their performance in a positive manner.
 - Supportive processes for staff when they are experiencing challenges, such as mentoring, mediation, conflict resolution, coaching, additional training, and external support and counselling services.
 - An induction program which thoroughly addresses the school's policies and procedures, particularly its expectations regarding student risk management and to assist employees to understand their role in providing a safe and supportive environment for students.
 - Training new and existing staff on an ongoing basis to enhance skills and knowledge and to reduce exposure to risks, as follows:
 - the school's policies and procedures
 - identifying, assessing and minimising risks to students
 - handling a disclosure or suspicion of harm to a child.
 - Keeping a record of the training provided to employees
 - Exit interviews to assist the school to identify broader issues of concern that may impact on the safety and wellbeing of students at the school.

This commitment is evidence of Coolum Beach Christian College's fulfilment of the requirements.

2. Handling Disclosures or Suspicions of Harm

Any of the types of concerns or reports below should be reported and managed under the Coolum Beach Christian College's Child Protection Policy, as follows:

- all staff with concerns about sexual abuse or likely sexual abuse or a child sexual offence committed by an adult.
- teachers with concerns of sexual or physical abuse
- teachers, nurses and early childhood education and care professionals with concerns of sexual or physical abuse.
- all staff who have received a report of inappropriate behaviour by another staff member.

To report any type of harm, all staff members should use the Report of Suspected Harm or Sexual Abuse Form in Appendix 2 of this document.

Furthermore, and in accordance with section 76 of the Education (Queensland College of Teachers) Act 2005, the Principal of Coolum Beach Christian College will report to the Queensland College of Teachers any investigations into allegations of harm caused, or likely to be caused, to a student because of the conduct of a relevant teacher at the school.

Any report made under this section or the Coolum Beach Christian College Child Protection Policy will fulfill the reporting obligations of all adults under the Criminal Code Act 1899.

This commitment is evidence of Coolum Beach Christian College fulfilment of the requirements .

Managing Breaches of this Child Risk Management Strategy

Coolum Beach Christian College is committed to appropriately managing breaches of this Child Risk Management Strategy in accordance with its other relevant policies as appropriate in the circumstances, such as its Child Protection Policy, Employee Code of Conduct, Complaints Handling Policy and Procedures and Enterprise Bargaining Agreement, and this is evidence of fulfilment of the requirements.

Implementing and Reviewing the Child Risk Management Strategy

This Strategy in its entirety and its related policies and procedures are evidence of fulfilment of the requirements.

3. Blue Card Policies and Procedures

Coolum Beach Christian College is committed to acting in accordance with chapter 7 and 8 of the Act relating to the screening of employees in such a way that limits risks to children. In particular, Coolum Beach Christian College will:

- Require relevant prospective or current employees, volunteers, trainee students and school Board Directors to have working with children authority, and check the validity and appropriateness of any currently held notices, in accordance with Coolum Beach Christian College's position descriptions and the Act prior to the commencement of their engagement.
- Not allow a person to continue to work with children if their working with child authority is cancelled or suspended or a negative notice is received after a change of police information.
- Have all relevant prospective employees and volunteers engaging in Restricted Employment acknowledge and sign a Restricted Person Declaration Form declaring they are not a restricted person prior to commencing their engagement.
- Not allow a person relying on an exemption to continue to work with children if they become a restricted person.
- Link and unlink individuals as they commence and conclude their engagement with the school.
- Appoint a school contact person who will be responsible for managing the working with child screening process and all related documentation and records.
- Keep written records of all the above actions, decisions and outcomes, including the dates of expiry for working with children authority.
- Ensure that all information in relation to working with children authority is kept confidential.
- Act to remind employees to keep their working with children authority up to date and apply for a renewal prior to expiry.
- Take appropriate action if an employee, volunteer, trainee student or school board member fails to submit a renewal application prior to their working with children authority expiring.

This commitment is evidence of Coolum Beach Christian College's fulfilment of the requirements .

High Risk Management Plans

Coolum Beach Christian College is committed to identifying risks, assessing risks, eliminating and minimising risks and the monitoring of risk to the safety of students on an ongoing basis. Coolum Beach Christian College will utilise various risk management tools to assist it in this process and will keep appropriate records of decisions made and actions taken in relation to risks to children.

This commitment is evidence of Coolum Beach Christian College's fulfilment of the requirements.

Strategies of Communication and Support

Coolum Beach Christian College's commitment to making this Child Risk Management Strategy available to students, parents and employees via its website is evidence of fulfilment of the requirements.

Coolum Beach Christian College is committed to training employees in relation to risks to students and will conduct this training regularly via annual formal training events, informal updates at staff meetings and regular discussions between managers and their staff, and this is evidence of fulfilment of the requirements.

Responsibilities

Coolum Beach Christian College is responsible for developing and implementing this Child Risk Management Strategy and related policies and procedures to ensure it fulfils its obligations.

All employees at Coolum Beach Christian College are responsible for acting in compliance with this Child Risk Management Strategy and related policies and procedures.

Restricted Person Declaration Form

Coolum Beach Christian College has a responsibility to ensure that all commencing and continuing individuals, working or volunteering with children, at Coolum Beach Christian College are not a restricted person.

As of the 31 August 2020, Blue Card Services have made changes which mean certain individuals are no longer able to rely on the current exemptions to work or volunteer with children.

The amended legislation introduced 2 new terms—restricted person and restricted employment. It is now an offence for a restricted person to commence or continue working or volunteering in restricted employment.

A restricted person is a person who:

- has been issued a negative notice, or
- has a suspended blue card, or
- is a disqualified person, or
- has been charged with a disqualifying offence which has not been finalised.

Restricted employment refers to the situations or exemptions that allow a person to work with children without a blue card. These include:

- a volunteer parent;
- a volunteer who is under 18;
- paid or unpaid staff who work in child regulated employment for not more than 7 days in a calendar year.

If you are a restricted person it is an offence for you to commence or continue working or volunteering at Coolum Beach Christian College. The maximum penalty is $66,725 (500 penalty units) or 5 years in prison. It is also an offence for Coolum Beach Christian College to engage or continue to engage a restricted person. The maximum penalty is $26,690 (200 penalty units) or 2 years in prison.

If you become a restricted person whilst working or volunteering at Coolum Beach Christian College you must cease all child related work immediately and notify the Principal you are no longer able to work or volunteer for Coolum Beach Christian College.

Declaration

Which one of the restricted employment exemptions are you relying on to work or volunteer for Coolum Beach Christian College?

- ☐ a volunteer parent
- ☐ a volunteer who is under 18
- ☐ child-related engagement for not more than 7 days in a calendar year

I _____ declare:

1. I am not a restricted person.
2. I understand it is an offence to start or continue working or volunteering in restricted employment if I am currently, or become, a restricted person.
3. I will cease all child related work immediately and notify Coolum Beach Christian College if my circumstances change.
